iOS VoiceOver Cheatsheet (version-α) - ole@omgwtf.dk

Starting and stopping VoiceOver

- Start VoiceOver with Siri: "Turn VoiceOver on".

- Stop VoiceOver with Siri: "Turn VoiceOver off".

Setting up VoiceOver

Open your Settings App.

- VoiceOver settings: General ≫ Accessibility ≫ VoiceOver .

Reading commands

- Use the gesture ⇑ to read from the top.

- Use the gesture ⇓ to read from current position.

- Use the gesture (··) pauses and restarts reading.

Basic navigation

- Use the gesture → to move to next item.

- Use the gesture ← to move to previous item.

- Use the gesture (··) to activate current item.

- Drag (· · ·) to scroll.

- Tap (· · ··) on top of screen to move to first item.

- Tap (· · ··) on bottom of screen to move to last item.

- Zigzag (··) to go back.

Other commands

- Use the gesture (· · ·) for information about your localtion.

- Use the gesture (· · ·) (· · ·) to turn speech on and off.

- Use the gesture (· · ·)(· · ·)(· · ·) to turn screen on and off.

Magic tap

The gesture (··) (··) is known as the magic tap and is context dependent.

- Use the gesture (··)(··) to start and stop dictation.

- Use the gesture (··)(··) to pickup you iphone.

- Use the gesture (··)(··) to start and stop playing media.

Using the Rotor

The rotor is a context-dependent tool.

- Use the rotor-gesture (two-fingers) ↺ or ↻ to set the rotor.

- Use the gesture ↓ to move to next rotor-item.

- Use the gesture ↑ to move to previous rotor-item.